

International Conference on grain processing and

Graintek

November 16-17, 2011
Iris Congress Hotel, Moscow, Russia

International Conference in grain processing is the main event for professionals and companies in gluten, starch and its derivatives business. We will discuss all sides of grain processing: from wheat and corn gluten to starch and biotechnology application in grain processing, including value added fermentation product from glucose: biomaterials, organic acids, bioplastics, etc.

Meet your current and future customers face to face at this comprehensive gathering of professionals who manage, purchase and support the grain processing industry in Russia, Eastern Europe and CIS countries. Position your organization as a leader in the Russian grain processing industry by becoming a sponsor. Don't miss out on the #1 marketing and networking opportunity for the Russian grain processing industry.
